Notification No. 177—Pen., dated 28*th September* 1939.

To

All Heads of Offices,

All the Presidents of Municipalities and District Boards.

In continuation of this office Circular No. 231—Pen., dated 16th February 1939, requiring that photographs in passport size should be sent to this office along with the pension applications in cases in which pensions are to be paid in the Cities of Mysore and Bangalore, the attention of all Heads of Offices is invited to the fact that the photographs should be duly attested before transmission to this office. At present photographs are being sent without any attestation necessitating their return for needful. To avoid the return of the photographs on this account and to minimise delay in the issue of pension payment orders all the concerned officers are requested to invariably attest them before despatch to this office.
